

OPEN LETTER

To Whom It May Concern,

This Open Letter is intended to formally communicate the undersigned's position and intent regarding matters set forth herein. This letter is issued in good faith and is legally binding under the laws of Australia. The undersigned asserts all rights and remedies available under applicable Australian legislation and common law.

1. Parties

This letter is addressed by the undersigned ('Sender') to the recipient ('Recipient'). Where applicable, both parties may be jointly referred to as 'Parties'.

2. Purpose

The purpose of this Open Letter is to convey the Sender's stance, intentions, and requests pertaining to the subject matter described herein. This letter is not intended to constitute a contract unless explicitly agreed to in writing by both Parties.

3. Statements and Declarations

The undersigned hereby declares that all information contained herein is true, accurate, and complete to the best of their knowledge as of the date of this letter. The Sender reserves the right to amend or supplement this letter as necessary.

4. Legal Compliance

This Open Letter is governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Australia. The Parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Australia. Nothing in this letter shall be construed to contravene any Australian statute or common law principles.

5. Confidentiality

The contents of this Open Letter shall be treated as confidential and shall not be disclosed to any third party without the prior written consent of the Sender, except as required by law or to professional advisors bound by confidentiality obligations.

6. No Waiver

No failure or delay by either Party in exercising any right, power or privilege under this letter shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right, power or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

7. Severability

If any provision of this Open Letter is found to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, that provision shall be severed and the remainder of the letter shall continue in full force and effect.

8. Entire Letter

This Open Letter constitutes the entire understanding between the Parties with respect to its subject matter and supersedes all prior communications, whether oral or written.

9. Acceptance

The Recipient's receipt of this Open Letter is acknowledged. Any acceptance, agreement, or response to this letter must be made in writing to be effective.
